

SUPPORT YOUR EMPLOYEE WITH SPONSORSHIP

Supporting women in the workforce is more critical than ever – and a Maven Space sponsorship is one of the best ways to support your female employees. There is no other community like Maven Space that unites women, supports them with programming and networking, and helps us reach gender equity for generations to come.

➤ Maven Members are movers and shakers

- Mavens of all identities, orientations, and backgrounds are warmly embraced at Maven Space. We are deeply committed to creating a community where members feel safe and supported.
- Here, business executives, startup entrepreneurs, creatives, and civic leaders comprise a vibrant network of people who support one another as they blaze new trails and break new ground.

➤ Companies sponsor Mavens to support their top employees

Companies sponsor Mavens to:

- Invest in and retain top talent
- Show their commitment to gender equality and DEI programs
- Unlock learning and resources across a wide range of high-impact topics
- Join a platform that provides increased awareness within a highly respected community

➤ Mavens (and communities) are healthier and happier

- From our gym and group fitness classes to conversations around mental health and burnout, wellness is top of mind at Maven Space
- Working among a supportive group of like-minded people, Mavens feel less isolated and more empowered
- When women thrive, entire communities benefit (source)

➤ Maven Space provides programming and education

- Workshops: 60+ skill-building and educational workshops
- Community: A growing community of peers to share expertise, recommendations, and resources
- Events: Access to thought leaders and industry icons to stay on top of macro trends and insights

➤ Maven Space is an essential talent retention investment

- $1950 Maven Works vs. • $30,000 for a 6-month executive coaching program
- $2950 Maven Teams • $13,000+ for a two-day executive conference